

Curricula and study plans committee

- Reviewing the department's study plans and submitting the necessary reports to higher authorities and having them approved by the department council
- Updating study plans based on similar specializations in universities with academic accreditation
- Reviewing the learning outcomes of various programs according to labor market requirements
- Proposing external and internal academic references to evaluate study plans.
- Proposing the activation of new programs and building their study plans according to the requirements of the labor market.

