

Mr. Bader Alghamdi
Lecturer at information Technology Department
Member at E-learning Deanship, Al Baha University

Profile:

Mr. Bader has worked as Technical Manager at Information Technology centre (ITC) at Al Baha University for last almost two years and was responsible for the all technical aspects of managing operation team, applications, and technical support and perhaps involved in the strategic team and infrastructure. Also he has played major role in criticize and implement ITC strategy and Road map for ITC for next 3 years as well as provide relevant technical information to operations staff to facilitate suitable operation and maintenance to achieve the optimize and sustainable level of IT services and practice.

Currently Mr Bader responsible for Assessing and build E-learning infrastructure in Baha University. As well as manage and Transfer online courses based on the Quality Matters Program in cooperate with Saudi electronic University.

Mr Bader has rewarded Master in Information technology Advanced studies in two majors (Database Management & Enterprise Architecture) from Griffith University, Australia.

Bachelor degree from Al baha University in Computer technology.

Achievements:

In short period of time I have got an extensive expertise in Information Technology which makes me became one of the team for emerging technologies of applying applicable E-learning system for Al Baha University. Also I was responsible for the Quality Officer position for ISO9001 in ITC. Currently Mr Bader is member of the E-learning deanship.

Projects in the Pipeline: Service Orientated Architected (SOA) Research, ITIL, PMP certificate and training.Prince2. CIO and CEO relationships.

Contact Details

Email: baalghamdi@bu.edu.sa m:0568233407