

Dr. Muhammad Qaiser Saleem
Assistant Professor

Profile: As an Assistant Professor, Dr. Muhammad Qaiser Saleem is responsible for teaching several courses related to the domain of Information Technology and Computer Sciences. He is also member of curriculum development committee.

Achievements: With more than 16 years of experience in IT Dr. Muhammad Qaiser Saleem is currently working as an Assistant Professor in the department of Information Technology, Collage of Computer and Information Technology, Al-Baha University, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. He has obtained his PhD in Information Technology from Universiti Teknologi PETRONAS (UTP), Malaysia in 2012. He obtained his BSc in Maths and Physics from Punjab University, Lahore, Pakistan, in 1995 and his MSc in Computer Sciences from International Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan, in 1998. He has completed his MS in Computer Sciences from Malardalen University, Vasteras, Sweden in 2006. During his professional career he remained involved in academia as well as IT industry and being involved in various development projects related to Databases and Data Warehousing environment. Currently his main research interest is modelling of security requirement during business process modelling in SOA application.

Projects in the Pipeline: Defining Security at early stages of software development by developing a Domain Specific Language

Department: Information Technology

Contact Details: E: qsaleem@bu.edu.sa
M:0592165346