

Instructions for the completion of the Form (3.A): Specifications of the Research Proposal

1. Information entered in this Form must be in the fewest number of words without prejudice to the meaning, and not to exceed one page with full obligation to stick to the model of the Form.
2. After completion, the Form must be critically reviewed linguistically to be valid for publication.
3. Full compliance with the elements of Specifications of the Research Proposal , as follows:
 - a) Problem: to be clear, specific and related to Albaha University and its community.
 - b) Objective: to be Specific - Measurable - Achievable - Realistic. – Time bound. It also must provide a solution to the problem, and demonstrates a benefit to the society.
 - c) Significance: to include the important and cost-effective technical, economic and social return.
 - d) Methodology: to include a succinct description of the methods used and the design of the experiments in a clear and in specific points.
 - e) Expected Outcome: identify the main expected outputs of search results.
 - f) Applications: suggest areas for practical applications within and outside the scope of the research.
 - g) Key words: provide three to five keywords at the most.

